Congratulations on taking the challenge to be a better Sport Manager.

The ISM Sports Management Course is intended to be a useful short training program for new and current sport managers and volunteers in the sport industry who need the 'fundamentals' to manage sporting clubs and organisations.

Upon receipt of the completed application form the ISM will mail out a CD with all the course materials on it, in addition an assessment document will be emailed to you.

When you successfully complete and return the assessment for the Sports Management Course you will be eligible to be issued with an official Institute of Sport Management Course Completion Certificate.
